has scheduled a confirmation hearing for March 5, 2014, at 9:30 a.m. before Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge Christopher M. Klein in Courtroom 35, located on the 6th floor of the United

RE-OPPOSITION to AMENDED PLAN for Adjustment of Debts of Stockton City scheduled for June 2014 HEARING before U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Christopher M. Klein

Justification:

Valid evidences in this twelve-page-attachment filed with STOCKTON city and SAN JOAQUIN County and made public show Stockton City elected & appointed officials with allies and well-paid ATTORNEYS-LEGAL firms by multidozen have committed violation of Perjury law before Court, publicly claimed by S-Mayor Anthony Silva in his State of City address, "We've made major progress in both finance and crime..." contradicting facts existing, such as

1. Stockton City regime's over $500 million debt reported publicly by former City Manager Bob Deis.
2. Measures A & B & K being Sales Tax Increase imposed on impoverished Stocktonians and current multimillion debts from bonds...
3. Crimes Against Humanity I have suffered for over 25 years day & night 7-days a week as majority Stocktonians reported in vain...

DONNELLY:

STOCKTON — California Assemblyman Tim Donnelly, the controversial tea party Republican front-runner hoping to unseat Gov. Jerry Brown later this year, passed through Stockton on Wednesday and stopped long enough to voice his opinions on pension reform, immigration, water Judge Christopher Klein will decide the fate of Stockton's plan to exit bankruptcy. But he also has been asked to decide whether the court has the power and the need to look into the cost of pension obligations to Stockton and other governments throughout California.

The 48-year-old Donnelly said Wednesday that Klein should take action, though Stockton did not address pension costs in its exit plan. Costs under the California Public Employees' Retirement System, Donnelly said,

"are contracts that the city of Stockton has seen can literally bankrupt your city and destroy the infrastructure of government for the citizens. That's unacceptable. ... We can't put the health of our economy at risk simply because somebody made promises we can't keep."

? We've made major progress?

"Our stock is rising," Silva said in a closing address that lasted less than four minutes, three-quarters of an hour less than last year's speech. "I'm advising you as your mayor to hold onto that stock."

"Stockton, California, a port city, Stockton, California, a waterfront city, Stockton, California, an All-American City once again. Stockton is open for business."

brought out that there are a lot of positive things going on." X
During Wilson's speech, the city manager presented a PowerPoint titled "Chapter 9 to Chapter 1." He spoke of the trauma the city has endured in recent years and of the progress it has made to move beyond its financial straits.
He said that as the city moves forward, it will be vital that it remain fiscally prudent, that it ruptcy and solvency.

"There's going to be a real push for people to say, 'Hey, you've got money, quick, let's go spend it,'" Wilson said. "Our recovery is going to be slow. It's going to require a lot of discipline from a lot of people."

X After Wilson, Jones spoke of anti-crime efforts in the aftermath of last year's passage by voters of the Measure A sales tax, which is projected to put 120 more police officers on the streets in the next three years. Jones also discussed elements of the city's Marshall Plan, which seeks to address the root causes of crime and to provide alternatives to recidivism. Jones cited crime statistics that began to improve in 2013. X X X

"We've made strides, but we must look at long-term trend lines, long-term solutions and plans," Jones said. "This requires something more than patience. It requires steadfast dedication. ... The single best deterrent to crime is a highly visible police force." X

Jones said recent years have brought some of the darkest moments in the history of Stockton's Police Department, which was established in 1850. The city hit "rock bottom" in 2012, Silva agreed. Now, though, the mayor said Stockton's direction is clear.

"The city has been hard at work," Silva told his audience of community and business leaders. "We've made major progress in both finance and crime. We've turned this ship called Stockton in the right direction and set a course for greener pastures. Our stock is rising." X

Kidnapping Girls, Sexual Assaults

By Paul Cobb - THE POST, May 7-13, 2014.

President Obama and First Lady Michelle, along with the Congressional Black Caucus and the women members of the United States Senate, finally joined the international demand to "Bring Back our girls."

The Nigerian kidnappings are emerging at the same time that the Obama Administration announced initiatives to prevent sexual assaults on US college campuses. The Nigerian girls were also assaulted on their secondary school.

The Boko Haram kidnappers are threatening to sell these educational scholars into sex slavery or to use them as bargaining chips.

Michelle Obama's Tweet from the White House.

Congresswomen Sheila Jackson, Barbara Lee, Karen Bass, and Janice Hahn speak out against Boko Haram's kidnapping of Nigerian girls.

Rebel vows to sell 276 girls

May 6, 2014

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — Nigeria's Islamic extremist leader is threatening to sell the nearly 300 teenage schoolgirls abducted from a school in the remote northeast three weeks ago, in a new videotape received Monday.

Abubakar Shikau for the first time has claimed responsibility for the April 15 mass abduction, warning that his group plans to attack more schools and abduct more girls.

"I abducted your girls," said the leader of Boko Haram, which means "Western education is sinful."

whose administrative and legal authority & responsibility as SJ-C supervising staffs MUST REPORT, identify wrongs + wrongdoings + wrongdoers in SJ-C gov't system, make RECOMMENDATION to SJ-C-BOARD of SUPERVISORS lawfully as duty mandates, avoiding "PART OF THE CORRUPT GOVERNMENT SYSTEM" causing deficit + bankruptcy + organized terrorism in neighborhoods... not just in group homes, HUD-funded housing/shelters/low-income AREAS where victims suffer day & night crimes + abuse + torture + gang rape + fear for life because LAW ENFORCERS ARE NOTORIOUS criminals like Police Chiefs, Sheriffs, DA's... in Stockton-San Joaquin gov't elected & appointed officials like Latino Mayor Anthony Silva + Council + C.D.G. have collaborated with for Election Votes + financial and personal gains... undermining commendable courage & efforts of 2014 SJ-BOS CHAIRMAN Bob Elliott...

Facts: 2014-15 funding & funded programs - projects financially benefiting Corrupt Government Officials - staffs and funded accomplices ARE still recommended by Department Heads despite deficit + bankruptcy + homelessness + joblessness + new taxes & fees + measures K/A/B increasing Sales Tax & Debt causing unprecedented sufferings to impoverished residents - especially children in poverty, pauperism, foster care... exploited by Funded Services Providers and Charities & United Way.

*PS: Detailed testimony will be forwarded later due to (1) time constraint, (2) organized Latino males-females-youths positioned in E. Alder block and nearby as Terror Criminals to inflict me with gang crimes + commencing narcotics for breaking, torture, injuries to get paid in Election & Budget time. 6/2/14 *to can Nguyen
